

FLED HOSPITAL; SHOT "MAN WHO SENT HIM THERE"

A man describing himself as David Brown, a printer, twenty-four years old, of No. 149 Rich Street, confessed to-day, according to the police, that he escaped from Gouverneur Hospital several days ago for the sole purpose of "getting" the man who put him there.

This man, Brown declared, "shot him when he wasn't looking" the day of the Preparedness Parade. He wouldn't say what the trouble was about, but said after he slipped away from the hospital he armed himself with a revolver and went on his enemy's trail. Last night his chance came at Fourth Street and Second Avenue, and indifferent to the crowd, he fired five shots before policemen overpowered him.

Two men were wounded. In Bellevue Hospital they described themselves:

Hyman Synowitz, alias Hyman Fisher, twenty-six, who said he was a tailor living at No. 183 South Third Street, Brooklyn; wounded in the abdomen, right arm and back; wounds believed to be fatal.

Isadore Abramowitz, twenty-eight, who says he is a tailor and lives at No. 160 Orchard Street; right arm wounded.

Brown protested that he had never seen Abramowitz before; that he did not fire at him, and that the bullet which struck him was intended for Synowitz.

Abramowitz also has protested that he was an "innocent bystander." The police, when they searched Brown, found in his pocket a gold watch worth about $200. On this watch was engraved the word "Brooklyn" and the initials "B. L. S. G. O. G." The prisoner offered an explanation of how it came into his possession. He was held on a charge of felonious assault.

WANT ALL GOODS BRANDED.

Woman Tell House Committee This Would Help Housekeepers.
WASHINGTON, June 1.—Mrs. Christine Frederick and Mrs. Julian Heath of New York urged a House Commerce Committee to approve the Stephenson bill legalizing maintenance of resale prices of trade-marked and patented goods in interstate commerce.

Mrs. Frederick had a display of products as exhibits, two of each to illustrate how one, with the manufacturer's name or trade-mark and the other without means of identification, afforded a guide to housekeepers. She said goods should be branded.

Mrs. Heath said the Housewives' League, which she represented, has an immense membership and should have weight in legislation affecting the household.

"You members know," she said, "and are guided by the brand of the cigars you smoke and the wine you may take, and the housewives should have the same privilege of identifying the products they buy."

MORE MONEY IS NEEDED TO SAVE HATTERS' HOMES

HARTFORD, Conn., June 1.—All trade unionists who have not already done so were requested to-day by Samuel Gompers to contribute one hour's pay on June 15 to the Danbury hatters, who are trying to pay the judgment of $252,000 obtained against them in the Lowe boycott case. A similar appeal on Jan. 27 produced $132,133.55, leaving about $117,000 to be raised. Mr. Gompers said:

"Unless something is done, upon the Danbury hatters, in their old age, must fall great suffering and loss of their homes as a result of their efforts to establish principles that are of fundamental importance to all the workers of the country. No one can calculate the influence of the hatters' case in establishing the need for the remedial constructive legislation contained in the labor section of the Clayton Anti-Trust Law."

WED LAST FALL; JUST OUT.

Dorothy Root, a Singer, married to John E. Levens Jr.
LEVENS—ROOT.—In Jersey City, Nov. 2, 1915, by the Rev. George Willis Gardner, JOHN ELLIOTT LEVENS JR. and DOROTHY ROOT, both of Brooklyn. This belated announcement, which appeared in a New York newspaper caused much speculation among the friends of the couple.

John Elliott Levens Jr., who lives with his father, an undertaker, at No. 54 Orange Street, Brooklyn, showed a reporter written statement, saying that his wife had been advised to retain her maiden name after marriage for business purposes.

Miss Root was a singer and because of the shortness of the name, the paper said, she thought it best to leave it as it was. The words "for no other reason" were underlined.

Mr. Levens hinted that his wife had gone to Bermuda. He would say nothing more except that his father-in-law was known in literary fields.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
